The Pirate's Treasure - Quest - World of Warcraft

Thanks to the popularity of "Treasure Island," the most famous novel about pirates, most people think that the bandits went around burying treasure on remote islands. In fact, pirates rarely buried treasure. Captain William Kidd buried his loot, but he's one of the few known to have done so. Considering that most of the pirate "treasure" to be had was delicate, such as food, sugar, wood, ropes, or cloth, it's not surprising that idea is mostly a myth.

Welcome to The Blackbeard Treasure, the world's only and largest treasure hunt! As legend has it, it is widely believed that some 300 years ago, pirates who sailed the world's oceans and seas terrorizing their victims, buried and hid their fortunes from both enemies and the law. Many did so when they knew their days were numbered.
